

After you were voted into office, you took an oath to support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic. You swore that you would bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution. You took this obligation upon yourself freely and without reservation, and swore to well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office to which you were elected by your constituents. Now is the time to honor this oath, and to fulfill your duties.

The Constitution and one of the fundamental underpinnings of our republic - free, fair, and honest elections - are under unprecedented attack. Malicious and powerful people are currently orchestrating a brazen, shameless and overt effort to manufacture fraudulent votes and subvert the reelection of the President of the United States. Every fraudulent vote, every illegal vote, disenfranchises each citizen who cast their ballot in good faith, and exercised their rights under the Constitution and the rule of law. Their rights are being violated. In fact, their rights are being treated like a joke. The widespread voter fraud we are witnessing today is a direct attack on the Constitution, on the electorate, and on the American system of government - the very system that affords you the position you hold, with duties you swore to well and faithfully discharge.

Now is the time to honor your oath and faithfully discharge the duties of your office. The deliberate destruction of our system of government and the perversion of the people's right to vote cannot be allowed to stand. This letter is a call to action, by any and all legitimate and lawful means at your disposal. This is not a time for pointless hearings with contemptuous witnesses, or collegial letters of inquiry. Demand action by the Attorney General of the United States. Demand action by the authorities of the state that you represent. Take whatever action you can by virtue of the office you hold. If nothing else, publicly and loudly condemn those who are seeking to steal an election, and turn the right to vote into a pointless farce. Stand and fight for the rights of the people you were elected to represent, and for the Constitution you swore to defend. Your elected position requires it, your oath demands it, and the future of our republic depends on it.
